In the year of our Lord 799, in the kingdom of Wessex, there lived a young woman named Tine Nell. She was the daughter of the King of the Saxons, and she was a woman of great beauty and virtue. She was also a devout Christian, and she spent much of her time in prayer and meditation.

One day, Tine Nell was visited by an angel who told her that she would be the mother of a great king. Tine Nell was overjoyed, and she immediately set about preparing for the birth of her child.

Nine months later, Tine Nell gave birth to a son, whom she named Alfred. Alfred was a healthy and happy child, and he grew up to be a wise and just ruler. He is known as Alfred the Great, and he is considered one of the greatest kings in English history.

Tine Nell was a devoted mother, and she raised Alfred to be a good man. She taught him the importance of justice, compassion, and faith. Alfred grew up to be a great leader, and he ruled England for over 30 years.

Tine Nell died in the year 849, at the age of 50. She is buried in the Winchester Cathedral, alongside her husband, King Ecgberht.

Tine Nell was a remarkable woman who lived a life of faith and devotion. She was the mother of a great king, and she helped to shape the history of England.

Tine Nell's Legacy

Tine Nell's legacy lives on today. She is remembered as a saint in the Catholic Church, and her feast day is celebrated on October 18th. She is also remembered as a great mother and a wise counselor. Her example continues to inspire people today.
